

Simple Life

Live large. Carry less.

FLAT ROCK HOT SPOTS

Flat Rock, a charming small town established in 1807, was once known as “Little Charleston of the Mountains” for those folks escaping the heat of the city.

TO DO:

- The Carl Sandburg Home: The historical home of famous poet and three-time Pulitzer Prize winner Carl Sandburg. Not only can you take a tour of the Sandburg home, but there are also over 5 miles of walking trails through gardens and past the whimsical goat barn.
- Flat Rock Playhouse: The Flat Rock Playhouse is the State Theater of North Carolina and produces musicals, comedy, and dramas.
- The Park at Flat Rock: Once a golf course, this 66-acre property has been transformed into a lovely walking park that is a dog, bike, and kid-friendly.

TO EAT:

- Hubba Hubba BBQ: This little smokehouse is a local favorite! Check out their lovely outdoor patio.
- Flat Rock Village Bakery: Wonderful bakery with pastry, bread, sandwiches and more! GF options are available.
- Honey & Salt: Amazing farm-to-table menu for breakfast and lunch.
- Flat Rock Wood Room: Award winning BBQ and wood-fired pizza.

Something for the whole family!

HENDERSONVILLE HOT SPOTS

Described by Trip Advisor as a “charming small town with warm hospitality and abundant natural beauty,” Hendersonville is a gem in the Blue Ridge mountains.

TO DO:

- Downtown Hendersonville is full of locally owned shops including cafes, boutiques, galleries, and restaurants.
- Jump Off Rock offers hiking trails as well as a spectacular view. Take a picnic basket up to the overlook to watch the sunset!

TO EAT:

- NeverBlue: Artsy boho tapas restaurant with vegetarian and GF options. Outdoor seating is pup friendly!
  - Poe House: Edgar Allen Poe themed bar with exquisite wine and cocktails.
  - Oklawaha Brewing Company: Award-winning brewery and pet-friendly
  - West First: Wood fired pizza; GF options available.
  - Renzo’s Ristorante: Classic Italian fare just like your grandma made it!
  - Postero: New American cuisine in an upscale dining experience
  - McFarlan Bake Shop: Need a sweet treat? Opened in 1930, Mcfarlan Bake Shop is still using traditional recipes passed down from generation to generation.
  - Brandy’s On Main: Steak House offering aged beef and fresh seafood
  - Shine: This revitalized historic building features innovative recipes and handcrafted cocktails.
- 